A Journey Through Time, Faith, and Divine Energy

Tue, 26 Aug, 2025 – Fri, 5 Sept, 2025

Kerala's Onam Festival is a vibrant harvest celebration that honors the legendary King Mahabali's annual homecoming. Celebrated with grandeur across the state, it showcases Kerala's rich cultural tapestry through intricate flower carpets (Pookalam), traditional feasts (Onasadya), folk dances like Pulikali and Kummattikali, and spectacular boat races. Onam symbolizes unity, joy, and spiritual abundance—bringing families and communities together regardless of caste or religion. It is the most iconic festival of Kerala, blending mythology, devotion, and festive spirit in perfect harmony.

Interesting Highlights

- Celebrate Thiruvonam with locals in an authentic Kerala household
 - Attend Kerala's famous Pulikali Tiger Dance and Athachamayam Procession
 - Visit iconic temples like Meenakshi Amman, Vadakkumnathan, and Thrikkakara Temple with VIP darshan
 - Stay in a traditional Kerala houseboat and cruise through serene backwaters
 - Learn ancient martial arts like Kalaripayattu and witness local folk traditions like Kummattikali
 - Accompanied by a DharmikGuide™, offering spiritual context, rituals, and cultural insights throughout the journey
