Family Special – Divine Yatra (1-3 Devotees)

Spiritual Yatra Dates:

An Eternal Yatra of Fire and Ocean

---

Thiruvannamalai – The Sacred Flame of Arunachalesvara

Spiritual Significance

Thiruvannamalai is the Agni Sthala, where Lord Shiva manifested as a pillar of fire to dissolve arrogance and reveal truth. Here, the very hill is revered as Shiva Himself - Arunachala. To step here is to step into the blazing silence of eternity.

Immersive Experience

The Arunachalesvara Temple rises majestically with its towering gopurams, and the sanctum radiates a still, fiery presence. Pilgrims circumambulate the sacred Arunachala Hill in the Girivalam ritual, especially on full moon nights, chanting “Om Namah Shivaya” with every step. The Karthigai Deepam festival lights the entire mountain with a flame seen for miles, a direct vision of Shiva as Agni.

Essential Pujas & Sevas

- Girivalam (Circumambulation) – A must-do, especially on Pournami (full moon). It purifies karma and grants inner clarity.

Thiruchendur – The Oceanic Might of Subramaniya Swamy

Spiritual Significance

Thiruchendur is the seaside abode of Murugan, the divine warrior son of Shiva and Parvati. It is here that Lord Subramanya vanquished the asura Surapadman, symbolizing the victory of light over darkness. Unlike most Murugan shrines on hills, this temple is embraced by the ocean - a reminder that Murugan's grace is as vast and boundless as the sea.

Immersive Experience

The waves of the Bay of Bengal rise and fall in rhythm with the chants of “Muruga, Muruga.” The Shanmukha darshan (six-faced Murugan) fills the heart with courage, purity,
